WHAT IS A FRIEND OF NORWICH UNIVERSITY OF THE ARTS?

Friends of NUA receive a wide range of benefits, whilst supporting the city's heritage by contributing to NUA through a minimal membership fee. If you enjoy architecture and support the arts, the Friend of NUA membership scheme is for you.

WHY BECOME A FRIEND?

Since 1845, the Art School in Norwich has been housed in some of the City's most notable buildings. Our studios, workshops, gallery, lecture hall and library each occupy sites of historic interest, and the University has invested heavily in the protection and redevelopment of several significant and protected structures. The landscape of the city centre, in particular the area surrounding the River Wensum, wouldn't be the same without us.

The Gallery at NUA attracts national and international exhibitions and works closely with Hayward Touring, the Arts Council Collection, the V&A and other arts organisations to show works which otherwise may not be seen in Norfolk. It also provides students, staff and alumni with a professional gallery space in which to exhibit.

Friends play an essential role in supporting the work of NUA whilst helping to safeguard the long-term future of the University. A Friends membership allows you behind the scenes access to many of our facilities at the University. By attending lectures, exhibitions and screenings you will be among the first to view our student and graduate work as it goes on display on campus and at other venues in Norwich.

WHAT BENEFITS WILL I RECEIVE?

- Invitations for you and a guest to exclusive NUA events including degree show private views, fashion shows, lectures, artist talks, and screenings
- Invitations for you and a guest to private views and events at The Gallery
- A tour of NUA's historic buildings
- Invitation to an annual Friends and supporters event
