NORWICH UNIVERSITY OF THE ARTS
Part-time Hourly Lecturer: MA Programmes
Supporting Information

Walk around the campus at Norwich University of the Arts and you will see evidence all around of artists, designers, media producers, makers and innovators at work.

We are one of the great British art schools: a specialist arts, architecture, design and media university that draws on more than 170 years of history but with our focus on the future.

We are renowned for our teaching quality. NUA was awarded Gold in the Teaching Excellence Framework and praised for how we encourage our students through “experimentation, creative risk-taking and team-working.” We were ranked in the UK’s top 10 institutions for teaching quality in the 2018 Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide.

We are also proud of our award-winning campus and facilities. Our 21st century teaching spaces and workshops are housed in renovated buildings with a medieval, Victorian and Edwardian heritage. NUA won the Outstanding Estates Strategy Award at the 2018 Times Higher Leadership and Management Awards, and was a finalist in the Buildings that Inspire category of The Guardian University Awards in the same year.

We welcome diversity. Whatever your background, wherever you are from, you’ll be welcomed as an innovator and leading practitioner in your field. You will join a community of creatives and makers who are committed to delivering expert academic tuition and who are supported by visiting specialists from the creative industries. You will work in a stimulating and critically-engaged environment.

NUA was “highly-rated” in the Which? 2018 Student Survey for “Job Readiness” and 94% of our graduates are in work or further study six months after graduation. You will find them in key positions at leading arts organisations, museums, galleries, fashion and textile houses, design and advertising agencies, UX and game development studios, film and media companies across the globe. There are Oscar nominees and BAFTA winners, and rising stars who are honoured across the creative industries: from D&AD Pencil winners, to acclaimed fine artists, photographers and fashion designers.

We understand that making career choices requires careful consideration. We hope that as you learn about us you will be inspired by our ethos and plans for the future.

Professor John Last OBE
Vice Chancellor

Application and Recruitment Process

Accessibility
If you require copies of documentation in alternative formats, large print or Braille, please contact the Human Resources Department.

Job Description and Person Specification
Within this pack you will find the job description and person specification for the post for you to read before you complete your application form.

- Job Description – provides information about the main duties and responsibilities for the position. It also describes the purpose of the post.

- Person Specification – sets out information about the characteristics that are essential and desirable to perform the duties in the job description e.g. knowledge, skills, experience, abilities and qualifications that the ideal candidate will have to enable them to fulfil the duties of the role. Candidates will only be shortlisted if they meet all the essential criteria.

Application Form
The application form is the first stage in the recruitment and selection process and is a key element in being short-listed for an interview and the possible offer of a job. Therefore, it is important that you complete all relevant sections of the application form as clearly and as fully as possible.

These notes give guidance on completing the application form and also further information with regard to the post and the recruitment process.

If you have any queries regarding any aspect of the recruitment and selection process, please contact the Human Resources Department on 01603 756278 or by emailing jobs@nua.ac.uk.

Applications should be completed in full and should preferably be typed.

You may submit your application form electronically to jobs@nua.ac.uk. By completing and emailing the application form, you confirm you are accepting the terms of the declaration as detailed on the form and understand that any false statement or omissions may result in your application being withdrawn or your appointment being terminated.

Supporting Statement and Additional Information
Space is provided on the application form for you to write a statement in support of your application. You may wish to enclose additional sheets which should be clearly marked with your name and the position you are applying for.

Your statement in support should address all the criteria listed under the person specification and state how your previous and present experience enables you to satisfy each of the criteria, using specific examples that are relevant to the job. This will enable the short listing panel to assess your knowledge, skills, experience, abilities and qualifications against the requirements of the post.

If you have been out of paid employment for a time, or have never been employed, you may have transferable skills or experience gained through voluntary/unpaid work or domestic, social or community activities that you undertake.

Education/Qualifications
In your application you should give details of examinations passed and any professional qualifications or awards obtained. Please provide details of the grade (if applicable) and the date of the award. If you are invited for interview you will be asked to bring the original copies of the qualifications as set out in the essential and desirable person specification which will be copied and checked against your application form.

Submission of Curriculum Vitae
You may, if you wish, submit a CV with your application form. However, we are unable to accept CVs without a fully completed application form.

Referees
Please provide the names, addresses and telephone numbers or email address of two people who are able to provide you with a reference. The first person should be your current or most recent employer and the other person must be someone who is able to comment on your skills and abilities required for the post.

If you are not currently working, or have never been employed, you should give the name of someone who knows you well. This should not be a friend or relative.

References will not normally be taken up unless you are provisionally offered the positions. All offers of employment are subject to receipt of satisfactory references.
Equal Opportunities Monitoring
Norwich University of the Arts is committed to equality and diversity. All applicants will be considered on their abilities and will not be discriminated against on the grounds of age, disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.

As part of its commitment to equality and diversity we undertake equal opportunities monitoring of our workforce and applicants to enable us to evaluate the effectiveness of our policies and procedures.

To help us with this commitment, all applicants are requested to complete and return the Equal Opportunities Monitoring form as part of their application. Information on the form will be treated as confidential and will be used in accordance with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulations and Data Protection Act as set out in the Job Applicant Privacy Notice. The information will be used for statistical purposes only, other than for the successful candidate as the data will form part of their personal confidential record. The form will be detached from your application form before this is given to members of the short listing or interview panel.

Submission of Application Form

Completed documentation must be submitted by:

5.00 pm on 16th April 2019

This is a strict deadline and we regret we are unable to accept late applications.

The University cannot be held responsible for application forms which are lost or delayed in the post. If you post your application form, please ensure there is sufficient postage for the size and weight of the envelope.

Application forms should be emailed to jobs@nua.ac.uk or posted to:

Human Resources Department
Norwich University of the Arts
Francis House
3-7 Redwell Street Norwich
